CONSTITUTION.

ARTICLE I.

SECTION 1. This organization shall be known as the SOCIETY OF THE TWENTY-FIRST ILLINOIS VETERAN VOLUNTEER INFANTRY, and shall include all soldiers who were honorably discharged from the same. Honorary members may be elected from any soldiers who may have served with distinction in the armies of the United States.

SEC. 2. The object of the organization shall be the preserving and keeping alive of those friendly and cordial relations, created among its members during the years of trial, privation and danger, incident to the great struggle for our national existence. The preservation of the names and reputation of those who fell from its ranks while in the discharge of duty, and of giving aid and assistance, by voluntary contribution or otherwise, to the widows and orphans of the same. To rejoicing with and congratulating its members when in prosperity, and by reaching them the helping hand and word of cheer in the hour of adversity.

SEC. 3. In maintaining and perpetuating the name and character of an organization, those who survive from its ranks feel they have just cause to be proud; while they acknowledge that for heroic deeds, patient endurance and patriotic devotion, the war for the Union developed many equals, they admit no superiors to the 21st Illinois Volunteer Infantry.

ARTICLE II.

SECTION 1. Its officers shall consist of a President, Vice President, Recording and Corresponding Secretaries, Treasurer, and one Company Secretary for each Company.

SEC. 2. The President, Vice President and Treasurer shall discharge the duties usually pertaining to those offices.

SEC. 3. The Recording Secretary shall keep all the records and proceedings of the Society; shall be the custodian of all its books, papers and records, and shall submit a report to the Society of its doings at each recurring reunion.

SEC. 4. The Corresponding Secretary shall attend to all its correspondence; make all needed arrangements for its meetings and reunions, and shall, aided by the Ten Company Secretaries, perform such other duties as provided for in the By-Laws of this Society.

SEC. 5. The officers shall be elected by ballot, or otherwise, as the Society may direct, at each regular meeting.

ARTICLE III.

SECTION 1. This Constitution may be amended at any regular meeting of the Society; Provided, such amendment shall have been submitted in writing to the Recording Secretary at least one month previous to such meeting, and shall be voted for by a majority of the members present.

BY-LAWS.

ARTICLE I.

SECTION 1. All survivors of the 21st Illinois Volunteer Infantry, honorably discharged from the same, are regarded as belonging to this Society, but to be so in good standing, it is requisite that they shall either have signed in person, or authorized some person to do so in writing, its Constitution and By-Laws, and pay into its treasury an annual sum of twenty-five cents.

ARTICLE II.

SECTION 1. All dues shall be paid to the Recording Secretary, he giving receipts for the same, and by him transferred to the Treasurer, who shall receipt for them to the Secretary.

SEC. 2. The Treasurer may pay out funds for contingent expenses on orders signed by the President and countersigned by the Recording Secretary. All other expenditures must be authorized by a vote of the Society.

SEC. 3. The Treasurer shall submit annually to the Society, a report of all the receipts and expenditures, accompanied with vouchers for the same.

ARTICLE III.

SECTION 1. Unless otherwise directed the meetings of this Society shall be held annually, at such time and place as may be designated at the previous annual meeting.

SEC. 2. When the place of meeting of the Society shall have been selected, and before adjourning, it shall be the duty of the President, advised by the resident members from such place, to select a committee of five to consist of either members of the Society, or citizens resident of the place where such meeting is to be held; which committee in conjunction with the Corresponding Secretary, shall make all needed arrangements for the annual reunion.

ARTICLE IV.

SECTION 1. It shall be the duty of the Corresponding Secretary, assisted by the Ten Company Secretaries, to prepare a Company Roll for each Company, to contain the names of every known survivor that has at any time served in his Company, placing opposite the name of the person, present post office and occupation. The Recording Secretary shall prepare the roll of the Field and Non-Commissioned Staff.

SEC. 2. When the Society shall have assembled at the hall or place designated for its meeting, the first business transacted shall be Roll Call. The President shall call the meeting to order, and direct the Drum Corps to sound the call. When the call is sounded the Corresponding Secretary shall rise in his place, and command, Attention! and direct the roll call to proceed by calling on the Recording Secretary to call the Field and Staff, and when he has finished, call on the first Company Secretary, in alphabetical order, to call his roll, and thus in order till all are called. The Company Secretary will rise in his place and call his roll, calling the name and postoffice address. Each member present, as his name is called, will rise in his place and answer.

SEC. 3. Every member of this Society is expected to be present at roll call, either in person or by proxy. If any member shall find it impractical for him to attend the reunion and answer in person at roll call, he shall send his proxy, which shall be a letter addressed to his Company Secretary, containing his excuse for being absent, and any other matter he may deem important.

LETTERS FROM ABSENT COMRADES.

LONG BRANCH, N. J. July 17th, 1882.

David Hanes, M. D.

Dear Sir—I am just in receipt of your letter of the 12th inst., inviting me to attend the reunion of the 21st Ill. Infantry (my old regiment), from the 19th to the 21st of September next, at Terre Haute, Ind. I am sorry to send my regrets; but I must do so. It always affords me pleasure to meet with the veterans of the regiment with which I had the honor to serve first in the suppression of rebellion. But distance, and other engagements, will prevent my doing so on this occasion.

Very truly yours,

U. S. GRANT.

DANVILLE, ILLS.; Sept. 19th, 1882.

To the Survivors 21st Ills. Vol. Infantry.

Dear Comrades—Until within a very few days; I promised myself the great pleasure of meeting with you to day, but I find I cannot. My Conference meets to-morrow at Lincoln; Ills., and our reunion is to be, I see, on Thursday. This makes it impossible to be with you at our meeting. Hope you may have a good time. You know I am always with the Old Twenty-First in heart. Yours,

E. D. WILKIN.

TUSCOLA, ILLS., Sept. 18th, 1882.

Comrades 21st Ills. Vol. Infantry.

As I cannot be with you, in person, please accept a soldiers greeting. Trusting that your reunion, this time, will prove a grand success, and that I may be permitted to meet with you all again at some other time and place.

I am respectfully,

JAS. L. REET,
Late Surg. 21st Ills. Vols.

DECATUR, ILL., Aug. 14th, 1882.

W. R. Hunter, A. G. Austin and Dr. J. E. Link.

Comrades—Your invitation to attend reunion at Terre Haute, Sept. 19th, 20th and 21st, I find upon my return home. If the disposal of time, at such date, is under my control, I shall do myself the pleasure of being with you. As time goes on, we all grow older, and the ties which once bound us, grow stronger with the age: at the best, we cannot meet in body many years, but we trust in spirit hence in reunion without day. This coming together, annually, is growing to be, like the pilgrim's religion, to worship at the holy shrine and offer up oblations to Deity; with us, I trust, it is a pilgrimage to the shrine of a country's devotion, by its surviving soldiers, to the holy altar of patriotism, lovingly and trustingly. I will do my best to be with you in person—but cannot say certain at this date, the disposition of time on the days you have fixed. You will have a good time. You are entitled to all the pleasures possible; keeping in mind, that our names, are of a certainty to be enrolled upon the roll call, which relates under its proper heading—that “we are absent—accounted for” on the muster-day of eternity. Present my best wishes to the boys and believe me,

Very truly, your obd't. serv't. CHAS. H. FULLER,
1st Adj't. of the Gallant 21st Ills.

XENIA, ILLS., Sept. 18th, 1882.

David Hanes, M. D.

Dear Sir—Say to my comrades that I fully intended to be present with them to-day, but owing to a press of work, (increasing at the last moment,) I am unable to attend. Enclosed please find 25c. in postage stamps to pay dues. May you have a good time, and may the friendship renewed be as lasting as it is pleasant. I remain yours by the ties that shall ever bind us together,

JOHN A. PEIRCE.

CENTRALIA, ILLS., Sept. 20th, 1882.

Comrades 21st Ills. Vol. Infantry.

Up to within a few hours of the time for train starting that should have taken me to the reunion, I confidently expected to meet you again, but at this late hour find that my business arrangements will not permit me to leave home. These annual meetings have become to me events in life fondly looked forward to, and to find myself compelled to forego the pleasure of meeting with you at Terre Haute, is a great disappointment. Hoping you are enjoying a pleasant time, and consoling myself with the hope of being permitted to meet with you often in the future. I am, as ever, your comrade,

I. S. TAYLOR.

MARQUETTE, MICH., Sept. 9th, 1882.

Comrades:

Since the inception of the annual reunions of my old regiment (the 21st Ills.,) it has not been my good fortune to assemble with them but once, and I had such a joyous time then, that each year I have promised myself that the following would find me one of the number, but "man proposes while God disposes" and circumstances each year as time comes around forces my absence. Now I am 'way up here almost to the northern limit of our great country, and business engagements will prevent my being with you, but that you will have a jolly good time I am well assured, I also feel assured that the citizens of Terre Haute will not have to mourn the loss of one single rooster, even if it does crow, as I have no doubt the "good cheer" will be in abundance and to spare. With my best wishes for a good time and a kind remembrance by my old comrades,

I remain, fraternally, C. S. BURROWS.

LOLA, KANSAS, Sept. 6th, 1882.

W. R. Hunter, A. G. Austin, Dr. J. E. Link and others:

Dear Sirs and Comrades—Your invitation to attend the reunion of our old Regiment on the 19th and 20th, reached me at this place some days since, and much as I would like to be there to greet my old comrades, and take them by the hand, circumstances entirely beyond my control render it impossible for me to attend. Say to my old friends, and especially to the members of my old company, who may be there, that though absent in body, yet I am with them in spirit, and hope they may enjoy many pleasant reunions in this life, and a great and glorious reunion of every member on that bright and shining shore beyond the dark river. My kindest and best wishes attend you all, now and hereafter. I am, with great respect, your comrade,

J. W. CLARK,

Late Capt. C Co. 21st Ills.

P. S. Lola, Allen co., Kas., is my present home. J. W. C.

PADUCAH, KY., Sept. 16th, 1882.

To the Survivors 21st Ills. Vol. Infantry.

I regret, owing to sickness in my family, that I cannot meet with you at Terre Haute, Ind., on the 19th, 20th and 21st, but while I am absent from you my heart is with you. It would afford me much pleasure to meet "Grant's Old Regiment" once again, and with the boys call to memory the struggles of the past. Hoping you may have a pleasant reunion, I close, sending my kindest regards to all.

Truly yours,

JAMES M. WYKOFF, Co. D.

BOZEMAN, MON. TER., Sept. 3d, 1882.

Comrades:

Cannot be with you this year—have just been burned out, and haven't time for anything but rebuilding and business generally. Hope next year to see your smiling faces, and in the meantime if any of you wish to see a booming town just come to Bozeman, the future capitol of Montana, and you will receive a hearty welcome. Hoping you may have a grand, good time,

I subscribe myself your comrade, B. F. OSBORN.

ROSITA, COLO., Aug. 25th, 1882.

Brother Comrades:

I have received the invitation to attend the annual reunion, and regret very much that I cannot be present, but trust I will be with you in 1883. It would be pleasant indeed, to me, if I could be present at this reunion, and recall the pleasanter part of army life by three days of actual camp life with you. Although I may be absent in body I will be present in spirit. Hoping you may have a jolly, jolly time,

I am, very respectfully, yours, A. J. NEWPORT.

DANVILLE, ILL., Aug. 19th, 1882.

Secretary Reunion:

Sir—I will be there if nothing prevents me. L. A. Stark, Co. F, is here. Yours with respect, R. NEWMAN.

IRONTON, IRON CO., MO., Sept. 8th, 1882.

Dear Comrades:

I received your kind invitation to attend our reunion at Terre Haute, and feel sadly disappointed that I cannot attend. I hope to be with you next year. Hoping my old companions will have a happy time,

I remain, an old 21st soldier, JOSEPH HASTY.

ROSE HILL, ILL., Sept. 18th, 1882.

Dr. D. Hanes:

Dear Sir—I received your kind invitation to attend our Regimental reunion to be held at your place on the 19th and 20th of Sept. I am sorry to inform you that I cannot attend, but I send my best respects and wishes to the boys of the old 21st, and especially those of Co. K. Hoping that you may all have a good time, and that I may be able to attend the next reunion, I remain your comrade, JOHN B. COWGER.

INDIANAPOLIS, IND., Sept. 10th, 1882.

My Dear Friends:

I take pleasure in writing you a few lines informing you of my welfare. I will be at the reunion if I can get off from my work, but it is a hard matter to get away from farm work. No more at present. JAMES C. GILSON.

SOMERTON, O., Aug. 30th, 1882.

Dr. David Hanes:

Dear Sir—I am sorry to say that I cannot be in attendance at our reunion. I am a poor man and cannot raise money enough to come on. Be pleased to tell all our old companions that I have a great desire to see them—the lack of money is my only hindrance. Give my address to all of Co. A's old veterans—tell them to drop me a card. Three cheers for the old flag, long may she wave!

Yours, &c.

ABRAHAM MCKITTRICK.

HASTINGS, NEB., Aug. 28th, 1882.

Far out in the west—in reply to your Committee of the Old 21st Ills, Vet. Vol. Infantry, I would simply say that it is not convenient for me to be with you—as I am absent, close up the ranks. Although I am absent in body I am with you in mind. I will close by wishing you a good time, and that we may meet at some future reunion. My kindest regards to all.

JOHN SHERMAN, Co. D.

CARTHAGE, IND., Sept. 17th, 1882.

Dr. David Hanes:

Nothing could give me more pleasure than to meet with the old 21st Ills, once more, and mingle with the boys whom I so long suffered with. I had thought until yesterday that I would be able to be with you at Terre Haute, but owing to sickness in my family I fear that I shall not be able to get there. My kind respects to the boys of the old 21st, and especially old Co. D. Hurrah for Old Chickamauga. P. A. CARD.

HARDINSVILLE, CRAWFORD CO., ILL., Sept. 10th, 1882.

Dear Comrades:

Your kind invitation to the reunion at Terre Haute is received—I hope there will be many of the old 21st there, and they may have a good time. I may not be able to attend this time, but will look with interest for an account of the proceedings. Hoping to be able to attend next year,

Yours truly,

J. C. RICHART.

KEOKUK, IOWA, Sept 11th, 1882.

Dr. David Hanes:

I regret to say it will be impossible for me to meet my old comrades in arms as requested. Yours, F. WALLER.

CASEY, ILLS., Sept. 5th, 1882.

Dear Sirs:

Your card of invitation thankfully received, and I would be happy to attend, but my business is such that I will have to decline. Thanking you for your kindness,

I remain, truly yours,

JEFFERSON SHORT.

FLORENCE, KAN., Sept. 4th, 1882.

Mr. Hanes, Corresponding Secretary:

Your invitation to attend the reunion of the 21st Ills. Vol. Infantry at Terre Haute, is at hand, would be pleased to meet my old comrades once more, as I never have been with the Old Regiment since the 20th of Sept. 1863, at the battle of Chickamauga, but corn-cutting and wheat-sowing is at hand, so I can't come. Hope you will have a good time.

Yours truly,

T. P. SAYRE, Sergt. Co. B.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Sept. 15th, 1882.

W. R. Hender, Esq.:

Many thanks for your kind invitation to the reunion of the old 21st Regiment Ills. Vols. at Terre Haute, on the 19th, 20th and 21st. It is with regret that I report to you my inability to meet my old comrades, 'tis the first time I have been absent, but being so far away, and being in the service of Uncle Sam in the Pension Office here, makes it impossible to meet you; but I will be there in spirit. Hoping you will have a bully big time, and my highest regards to all the boys, I remain, as ever,

Yours,

ENOCH WALKER, Co. E.

YATES CENTER, KAN., Sept. 3d, 1882.

Comrade David Hanes:

Your card of invitation to attend and renew the friendships of army life is at hand, and I regret very much that my circumstances are such that I cannot attend. I wish you success and a happy meeting. Yours fraternally, WM. WALMSLEY.

FRONTON, Mo., Sept. 12th, 1882.

Dr. David Hanes:

Dear Sir--Your kind invitation to attend the reunion of the old 21st Ill. Infantry received, I am sorry I cannot be with you on the 20th inst. Hope to be with you at some future time. I would be glad if their next meeting could be here on our old camp ground, where Gen. Grant left us with a Brigadier's commission. There are three of us here. Celebrate the anniversary of the battle of Pilot Knob on 27th of Sept. Can't you fix next meeting here on that date next year.

Yours,

AARON ELLIOTT.

LOVINGTON, ILL., Aug. 22d, 1882.

Friend Austin:

I understand that Dan. Vorhees is going to make the welcome address--if so please answer. I would rather help hang the dam scamp than hear him make a speech at the reunion of the 21st Illinois. Will you please answer this epistle.

Respectfully, J. B. PEMBERTON, Co. B, 21st Ills.

By Thunder.

440 West 4th St., Chicago, Sept. 16th, '82.

Dr. D. Hanes:

Dear Comrade—Your kind invitation to attend the reunion of the 21st came to hand some time since. I have delayed to answer, hoping I could get off, but I cannot, and you will have to excuse me. My best wishes are with you all, hope you will enjoy yourselves, not only at this reunion, but at many others of the 21st. Give my highest regards to all the boys. Will try and not fail you next year.

I am, very respectfully,

PAUL F. A. PUNDT.

HOLLISTER, CAL., Sept. 5th, 1882.

Comrades:

Again I am in receipt of your kind invitation to be present at your annual reunion, and again I am compelled to answer at "roll call" by letter. Nothing would afford me greater pleasure than to meet you face to face, and again go over the scenes and times long past. Accept my most sincere thanks for the kind invitation, and believe me, your true friend,

THOMAS YOST, Co. A.

HUMBOLDT, KAN., Aug. 17th, 1882.

Esteemed Friends and Comrades:

It would be my highest pleasure, to be with you on those days of reunion, but circumstances will not permit me to come. May every blessing of life and friendship be yours.

Yours truly,
